

Author's Visit

John Miller, Author & Illustrator

On Friday June 3, 2022, Deer Hill School will welcome John R. Miller, author of Adventures in Handom and The Magical Heart of Handom.

John will give a speech about how he was able to overcome many obstacles in life including having autism, attaining his black belt in taekwondo, and writing two books. He did this by working hard and never giving up on his dreams and himself. John will also answer questions and read Adventures in Handom and The Magical Heart of Handom.

If your child is interested in a signed copy of these special books, please return this book order with payment.

King Francis, Queen Eleanor and Princess Isabella live in Handom. One day while playing with her cousins, Isabella accidentally discovers a hidden mystery. Dr. Wiseman, a childhood friend of the King, has been doing experiments that can ruin Handom unless the mystery is solved. John's newest story highlights the power of friendship.

Handom is a small and colorful colony on planet H-13 Which is ruled by a kind leader, Capt Hank. Brothers Bob and Tony meet their match in General Arnold. Will they find the ancient Golden Statue and use its power to return kindness to Handom? This story is a unique, creative tale of good vs evil and the importance of having a good heart.
